

WAR IN BRAZIL

Dictator Fonseca Facing a Swelling Tide of Revolt.

Whole Garrisons Desert His Standard for the Opposition Flag.

HURRYING SHIPS AND SOLDIERS TO RIO GRANDE DO SUL.

The Nationalists Reported Victorious in the First Battle of the Rebellion—A General Uprising Seems Probable—Provinces Which Have Refused to Accept the New Order of Things—The Navy's Strength.

LONDON, Nov. 18.—Even the most alarming reports from Brazil are confirmed to-day by a dispatch received by a leading financial house, having large interests in Brazil. This message, so far as untagged from the cipher complications in which it has been wrapped, says, in substance:

"Affairs in Brazil look bad. A general upheaval throughout the Republic is probable, with the result very uncertain.

"Several of the States are known to be in revolt and troops or some of the garrisons are joining with the opposition.

"Fonseca cannot rely upon the navy. His health is bad, and he cannot long stand the mental and physical strain of the situation.

"There is fighting going on somewhere, and it is reported that the Dictator's forces have been defeated.

"Exchange is dropping and financial affairs look blue. Paper money is under a cloud. Prices of everything rising.

"The presence of a strong British fleet in Brazilian waters would have a good effect.

"The opposition to the Dictator, who have taken the name of Nationalists, seem to be gaining every hour. Much bloodshed seems inevitable."

From the above synopsis of the situation it will be seen that the worst is to be feared. Other and similar messages, some of them giving more details and still being of a decidedly more sensational character, have been received in London during the last few hours. Of course, the fact is not lost sight of that English financiers and merchants are, in some cases, not adverse to receiving and spreading bad news from Brazil. They are not in favor of the United States reciprocity treaty with that country and some of them would make handsome profits at a slump in Brazilian securities.

FIGHTING REPORTED.

Further fighting is reported in Brazil, and the opposition forces are again credited with a victory, but the spot where the battle was fought is not stated, but it is supposed to have been in the vicinity of Santa Anna, near Porto Allegre, the capital of Rio Grande do Sul. A number of other towns in addition to Porto Allegre are reported to have hoisted the flag of the National party, and large bodies of troops are being raised in the provinces with the ultimate intention, it is said, of advancing upon the Dictator's headquarters at São Paulo.

It is now said that Da Fonseca's idea in leaving Rio Janeiro for São Paulo, was undoubtedly caused by the two facts already mentioned in these dispatches; namely that he makes his base of operations there as it is next to impossible for him to be certain he can count upon, however, his power to foment between the two forces of the provinces of Rio Grande do Sul and, finally, because his advisers are said to be of the opinion that the political atmosphere of Rio Janeiro is not, at the present moment, thoroughly beneficial to the dictator's health.

There is no further news from the provinces of Pernambuco, Bahia and Minas Gerais or from Rio, Catilina (or Santa Catharina), but the continuing reports of the rebels here to the effect that they have revolted against the dictatorship are denied by subsequent cable messages. On the other hand the garrisons of São Gabriel and Bage, in Rio Grande do Sul, are reported to have joined issue with the those who have revolted against the Government.

IN THE FIELD.

Da Fonseca, from São Paulo, is dispatching some of the troops he has concentrated there to the assistance of Gov. Castilho, in Rio Grande do Sul, and that party is said to be determined, if possible, not to allow the junction of those forces to be accomplished without a struggle. If Da Fonseca allows the Nationalists time to gather themselves together, the rebels will have to fight their way south, and the engagement of the civil war may then be looked for. This day's cable advises add that the Nationalists will use the unity of their energy in trying to create diversion in Da Fonseca's rear, probably through the assistance of the forces of the province of Minas Gerais.

A later message says that Da Fonseca's reinforcements are to be embarked on board war vessels and transports, and that they will be sent to Rio Grande do Sul by sea. The Nationalists are credited with having made arrangements to place a force of 7,000 men, horse, foot and artillery, in the field.

It is of these facts and taking into consideration the coming strict censorship observed by all telegraph and cable offices in Brazil, no attention is paid here to the detail sent out from Fonseca's orders to the effect that all Brazilian Ministers abroad are to continue to denounce "alarmist reports spread through the press in part to injure the government, monarchy and disturbance of public order in Brazil." In the same breath these orders say that "Rio de Janeiro" is perfectly quiet with the exception of the "local disturbances" in São Paulo, but the orders sent to the Brazilian Minister in London, add that quiet prevails in all States (except Rio Grande do Sul), where the government has taken measures to put down the contentions arising from the struggle for supremacy between the two parties." If the British Minister is ordered to continue denying "alarmist reports" as to the condition of public order in Brazil, how can he do when the orders sent to him contain the admission that there is a revolution in progress in Rio Grande do Sul? The fact is that the situation is much more serious than even the most alarming reports have set forth.

The London Telegraph is in receipt of a cablegram to-day from Rio Janeiro stating that the Province of Grão-Pará has declared against the Dictator of Brazil. The Governor and State Assembly have determined to secede from the United States of Brazil if the Dictator adheres to his purpose of coercing the provinces into recognition of his rule. Grão-Pará is one of the most important provinces of Brazil. It is situated in the extreme north of the country. Para, the capital city, is the greatest rubber port in the world. Its trade is mostly with Liverpool, London, Barbados, Cayenne and North American ports.

THE REVOLT SPREADS.

GROWTH OF THE SECESSION MOVEMENT IN RIO GRANDE DO SUL.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—To day cables from South America give the latest intelligence of the progress of the secession movement in Rio Grande do Sul. The revolt against Dictator Fonseca continues to spread. The insurgents' ranks are increasing in size hourly and the rebels' strength increases. One of the towns has captured the town of Santa Anna, on the River Minas, north of the Capital, Porto Allegre. They were led by Gen. Fernandes, a number of whom are said to be the rebels. Very little resistance was made to the rebels, and as a consequence no one was killed or wounded in the capture of the place. This would indicate that Santa Anna, which has a population of about 10,000, is at least a garrison town to the Nationalists. Notwithstanding the report that the garrison of Yaguarão had gone over to the insurgents it is now stated that the town itself remains faithful to the cause of Fonseca.

Yaguarão, São Vicente and Porto Allegre are said to be the only towns that support the dictatorship. All the others in Rio Grande do Sul are said to have espoused the cause of the Nationalists.

The revolutionaries are reported to have raised large bodies of volunteer troops. Included in their forces are five regiments of cavalry and one of cavalry, which deserted Fonseca as soon as the revolt was proclaimed.

The plan of the insurgents are not fully understood, but it is said that they will now turn their attention to the towns of Yaguarão, São Vicente and Porto Allegre which remain now to the Dictator. Their object seems to be to gain possession of these places before the arrival of the gunboats, monitors and transports which Fonseca has sent.

Yaguarão, São Vicente and Porto Allegre are to be the only towns that support the dictatorship. All the others in Rio Grande do Sul are said to have espoused the cause of the Nationalists.

The revolutionaries are reported to have raised large bodies of volunteer troops. Included in their forces are five regiments of cavalry and one of cavalry, which deserted Fonseca as soon as the revolt was proclaimed.

The plan of the insurgents are not fully understood, but it is said that they will now turn their attention to the towns of Yaguarão, São Vicente and Porto Allegre which remain now to the Dictator. Their object seems to be to gain possession of these places before the arrival of the gunboats, monitors and transports which Fonseca has sent.

Yaguarão, São Vicente and Porto Allegre are to be the only towns that support the dictatorship. All the others in Rio Grande do Sul are said to have espoused the cause of the Nationalists.

The revolutionaries are reported to have

raised large bodies of volunteer troops. Included in their forces are five regiments of cavalry and one of cavalry, which deserted Fonseca as soon as the revolt was proclaimed.

The plan of the insurgents are not fully understood, but it is said that they will now turn their attention to the towns of Yaguarão, São Vicente and Porto Allegre which remain now to the Dictator. Their object seems to be to gain possession of these places before the arrival of the gunboats, monitors and transports which Fonseca has sent.

Yaguarão, São Vicente and Porto Allegre are to be the only towns that support the dictatorship. All the others in Rio Grande do Sul are said to have espoused the cause of the Nationalists.

The revolutionaries are reported to have

raised large bodies of volunteer troops. Included in their forces are five regiments of cavalry and one of cavalry, which deserted Fonseca as soon as the revolt was proclaimed.

The plan of the insurgents are not fully understood, but it is said that they will now turn their attention to the towns of Yaguarão, São Vicente and Porto Allegre which remain now to the Dictator. Their object seems to be to gain possession of these places before the arrival of the gunboats, monitors and transports which Fonseca has sent.

Yaguarão, São Vicente and Porto Allegre are to be the only towns that support the dictatorship. All the others in Rio Grande do Sul are said to have espoused the cause of the Nationalists.

The revolutionaries are reported to have

raised large bodies of volunteer troops. Included in their forces are five regiments of cavalry and one of cavalry, which deserted Fonseca as soon as the revolt was proclaimed.

The plan of the insurgents are not fully understood, but it is said that they will now turn their attention to the towns of Yaguarão, São Vicente and Porto Allegre which remain now to the Dictator. Their object seems to be to gain possession of these places before the arrival of the gunboats, monitors and transports which Fonseca has sent.

Yaguarão, São Vicente and Porto Allegre are to be the only towns that support the dictatorship. All the others in Rio Grande do Sul are said to have espoused the cause of the Nationalists.

The revolutionaries are reported to have

raised large bodies of volunteer troops. Included in their forces are five regiments of cavalry and one of cavalry, which deserted Fonseca as soon as the revolt was proclaimed.

The plan of the insurgents are not fully understood, but it is said that they will now turn their attention to the towns of Yaguarão, São Vicente and Porto Allegre which remain now to the Dictator. Their object seems to be to gain possession of these places before the arrival of the gunboats, monitors and transports which Fonseca has sent.

Yaguarão, São Vicente and Porto Allegre are to be the only towns that support the dictatorship. All the others in Rio Grande do Sul are said to have espoused the cause of the Nationalists.

The revolutionaries are reported to have

raised large bodies of volunteer troops. Included in their forces are five regiments of cavalry and one of cavalry, which deserted Fonseca as soon as the revolt was proclaimed.

The plan of the insurgents are not fully understood, but it is said that they will now turn their attention to the towns of Yaguarão, São Vicente and Porto Allegre which remain now to the Dictator. Their object seems to be to gain possession of these places before the arrival of the gunboats, monitors and transports which Fonseca has sent.

Yaguarão, São Vicente and Porto Allegre are to be the only towns that support the dictatorship. All the others in Rio Grande do Sul are said to have espoused the cause of the Nationalists.

The revolutionaries are reported to have

raised large bodies of volunteer troops. Included in their forces are five regiments of cavalry and one of cavalry, which deserted Fonseca as soon as the revolt was proclaimed.

The plan of the insurgents are not fully understood, but it is said that they will now turn their attention to the towns of Yaguarão, São Vicente and Porto Allegre which remain now to the Dictator. Their object seems to be to gain possession of these places before the arrival of the gunboats, monitors and transports which Fonseca has sent.

Yaguarão, São Vicente and Porto Allegre are to be the only towns that support the dictatorship. All the others in Rio Grande do Sul are said to have espoused the cause of the Nationalists.

The revolutionaries are reported to have

raised large bodies of volunteer troops. Included in their forces are five regiments of cavalry and one of cavalry, which deserted Fonseca as soon as the revolt was proclaimed.

The plan of the insurgents are not fully understood, but it is said that they will now turn their attention to the towns of Yaguarão, São Vicente and Porto Allegre which remain now to the Dictator. Their object seems to be to gain possession of these places before the arrival of the gunboats, monitors and transports which Fonseca has sent.

Yaguarão, São Vicente and Porto Allegre are to be the only towns that support the dictatorship. All the others in Rio Grande do Sul are said to have espoused the cause of the Nationalists.

The revolutionaries are reported to have

raised large bodies of volunteer troops. Included in their forces are five regiments of cavalry and one of cavalry, which deserted Fonseca as soon as the revolt was proclaimed.

The plan of the insurgents are not fully understood, but it is said that they will now turn their attention to the towns of Yaguarão, São Vicente and Porto Allegre which remain now to the Dictator. Their object seems to be to gain possession of these places before the arrival of the gunboats, monitors and transports which Fonseca has sent.

Yaguarão, São Vicente and Porto Allegre are to be the only towns that support the dictatorship. All the others in Rio Grande do Sul are said to have espoused the cause of the Nationalists.

The revolutionaries are reported to have

raised large bodies of volunteer troops. Included in their forces are five regiments of cavalry and one of cavalry, which deserted Fonseca as soon as the revolt was proclaimed.

The plan of the insurgents are not fully understood, but it is said that they will now turn their attention to the towns of Yaguarão, São Vicente and Porto Allegre which remain now to the Dictator. Their object seems to be to gain possession of these places before the arrival of the gunboats, monitors and transports which Fonseca has sent.

Yaguarão, São Vicente and Porto Allegre are to be the only towns that support the dictatorship. All the others in Rio Grande do Sul are said to have espoused the cause of the Nationalists.

The revolutionaries are reported to have

raised large bodies of volunteer troops. Included in their forces are five regiments of cavalry and one of cavalry, which deserted Fonseca as soon as the revolt was proclaimed.

The plan of the insurgents are not fully understood, but it is said that they will now turn their attention to the towns of Yaguarão, São Vicente and Porto Allegre which remain now to the Dictator. Their object seems to be to gain possession of these places before the arrival of the gunboats, monitors and transports which Fonseca has sent.

Yaguarão, São Vicente and Porto Allegre are to be the only towns that support the dictatorship. All the others in Rio Grande do Sul are said to have espoused the cause of the Nationalists.

The revolutionaries are reported to have

raised large bodies of volunteer troops. Included in their forces are five regiments of cavalry and one of cavalry, which deserted Fonseca as soon as the revolt was proclaimed.

The plan of the insurgents are not fully understood, but it is said that they will now turn their attention to the towns of Yaguarão, São Vicente and Porto Allegre which remain now to the Dictator. Their object seems to be to gain possession of these places before the arrival of the gunboats, monitors and transports which Fonseca has sent.

Yaguarão, São Vicente and Porto Allegre are to be the only towns that support the dictatorship. All the others in Rio Grande do Sul are said to have espoused the cause of the Nationalists.

The revolutionaries are reported to have

raised large bodies of volunteer troops. Included in their forces are five regiments of cavalry and one of cavalry, which deserted Fonseca as soon as the revolt was proclaimed.

The plan of the insurgents are not fully understood, but it is said that they will now turn their attention to the towns of Yaguarão, São Vicente and Porto Allegre which remain now to the Dictator. Their object seems to be to gain possession of these places before the arrival of the gunboats, monitors and transports which Fonseca has sent.

Yaguarão, São Vicente and Porto Allegre are to be the only towns that support the dictatorship. All the others in Rio Grande do Sul are said to have espoused the cause of the Nationalists.

The revolutionaries are reported to have

raised large bodies of volunteer troops. Included in their forces are five regiments of cavalry and one of cavalry, which deserted Fonseca as soon as the revolt was proclaimed.

The plan of the insurgents are not fully understood, but it is said that they will now turn their attention to the towns of Yaguarão, São Vicente and Porto Allegre which remain now to the Dictator. Their object seems to be to gain possession of these places before the arrival of the gunboats, monitors and transports which Fonseca has sent.

Yaguarão, São Vicente and Porto Allegre are to be the only towns that support the dictatorship. All the others in Rio Grande do Sul are said to have espoused the cause of the Nationalists.

The revolutionaries are reported to have

raised large bodies of volunteer troops. Included in their forces are five regiments of cavalry and one of cavalry, which deserted Fonseca as soon as the revolt was proclaimed.

The plan of the insurgents are not fully understood, but it is said that they will now turn their attention to the towns of Yaguarão, São Vicente and Porto Allegre which remain now to the Dictator. Their object seems to be to gain possession of these places before the arrival of the gunboats, monitors and transports which Fonseca has sent.

Yaguarão, São Vicente and Porto Allegre are to be the only towns that support the dictatorship. All the others in Rio Grande do Sul are said to have espoused the cause of the Nationalists.

The revolutionaries are reported to have

raised large bodies of volunteer troops. Included in their forces are five regiments of cavalry and one of cavalry, which deserted Fonseca as soon as the revolt was proclaimed.

The plan of the insurgents are not fully understood, but it is said that they will now turn their attention to the towns of Yaguarão, São Vicente and Porto Allegre which remain now to the Dictator. Their object seems to be to gain possession of these places before the arrival of the gunboats, monitors and transports which Fonseca has sent.

Yaguarão, São Vicente and Porto Allegre are to be the only towns that support the dictatorship. All the others in Rio Grande do Sul are said to have espoused the cause of the Nationalists.

The revolutionaries are reported to have

raised large bodies of volunteer troops. Included in their forces are five regiments of cavalry and one of cavalry, which deserted Fonseca as soon as the revolt was proclaimed.

The plan of the insurgents are not fully understood, but it is said that they will now turn their attention to the towns of Yaguarão, São Vicente and Porto Allegre which remain now to the Dictator. Their object seems to be to gain possession of these places before the arrival of the gunboats, monitors and transports which Fonseca has sent.

Yaguarão, São Vicente and Porto Allegre are to be the only towns that support the dictatorship. All the others in Rio Grande do Sul are said to have espoused the cause of the Nationalists.

The revolutionaries are reported to have

raised large bodies of volunteer troops. Included in their forces are five regiments of cavalry and one of cavalry, which deserted Fonseca as soon as the revolt was proclaimed.

The plan of the insurgents are not fully understood, but it is said that they will now turn their attention to the towns of Yaguarão, São Vicente and Porto Allegre which remain now to the Dictator. Their object seems to be to gain possession of these places before the arrival of the gunboats, monitors and transports which Fonseca has sent.

Yaguarão, São Vicente and Porto Allegre are to be the only towns that support the dictatorship. All the others in Rio Grande do Sul are said to have espoused the cause of the Nationalists.

The revolutionaries are reported to have

raised large bodies of volunteer troops. Included in their forces are five regiments of cavalry and one of cavalry, which deserted Fonseca as soon as the revolt was proclaimed.

The plan of the insurgents are not fully understood, but it is said that they will now turn their attention to

St. Louis Post-Dispatch,

PUBLISHED BY

THE DISPATCH PUBLISHING CO.

JOSEPH PULITZER, President.

TERMS OF THE DAILY.

One year, postage paid, every afternoon	$10.00
Sunday morning	5.00
Six months	5.00
Three months	2.50
By week (delivered by carrier)	2.50
By the month (delivered by carrier)	6.00
Sunday edition, by mail, per year	2.00

Subscribers who fail to receive their paper early will receive a favor upon us by reporting the same to the office by post card.

All business or news letters or telegrams should be addressed

POST-DISPATCH,
613 Olive st.

POSTAGE.

Entered at the Post-office, St. Louis, Mo., as Second-class matter.
AMERICAN	For Copy
Eight to sixteen pages	1 Cent
Eighteen to thirty-two pages	2 Cents
FOREIGN
Daily (5 pages a.)	Cent
or	2 Cents
Sunday (20 to 36 pages)	4 Cents

TELEPHONE NUMBERS.

Editorial Room	285
Business Office	284
London Office, 32 Cockspur Street, Charing Cross, New York Bureau, Room 86, Pulitzer Building, Max. H. Fischer, Manager.

THE POST-DISPATCH

Guarantees to Advertisers a Larger Local Circulation than that of Any Other TWO St. Louis Newspapers Combined.

TEN PAGES.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1891.

ADVERTISEMENTS TO NIGHT.

OLYMPIC—William H. Stark.
GRAND OPERA-HOUSE—N. C. Goodwin.
STANDARD—Hyde's Vaudeville Company.
POPE—Charles A. Gardner.
HAVLIN—Gus Hill's Vaudeville Company.
THE HAGAN—J. C. Duff Comedy Opera Company.
MAGNET—William C. Goodwin.
OLYMPIC—William H. Crane.
POPE—Charles A. Gardner.
HAVLIN—Gus Hill's Vaudeville Company.
THE HAGAN—J. C. Duff Comedy Opera Company.
STANDARD—Hyde's Vaudeville Company.

Weather forecast for twenty-four hours, beginning at 8 a. m. to-day, for Missouri: Slightly warmer and fair weather; considerably warmer and fair Saturday; probably fair Sunday.

The area of high barometer is now central in the western portion of the Mississippi Valley and sinking slowly southeasterly, preceded by cooler weather.

West of the Mississippi the temperature will rise, while slightly cooler weather will occur to-night in States bordering on the Atlantic and Eastern Gulf.

Light rains have fallen in the lake region, and light snows have occurred in Colorado, where a storm appears to be developing. Elsewhere the weather continues fair.

Weather forecast for twenty-four hours, beginning at 8 a. m. to-day, for St. Louis: Fair after Friday and Saturday; warmer; northerly winds, becoming easterly to-morrow.

The law and the popular verdict agree that MACKLIN must go.

The will of the people with reference to the School Board will not be carried out until that body is rid of the members not entitled to seats.

An auction sale of tombstones held in this city yesterday handsome slabs were knocked down at 10 cents, and yet FASSETT has a host of rich friends.

A COMBINE which would be of advantage to the schools would be a combine of honest directors formed for the purpose of bounting MACKLIN and punishing the bidders and ballot-box stuffers.

HENRY CABOT LODGE declares that the question of free trade or protection is in no sense one of morality. Mr. LODGE belongs to the school of statesmen who hold that morality in politics is an iridescent dream.

THE difficulty in obtaining news from Brazil might be overcome if the State Department would transfer Mr. EGAN from Santiago to Rio. The news might not be authentic, but it would be exciting and readable.

"JOE" MULHATTON, who has the reputation of being the "greatest liar living," has to prove to the satisfaction of a judge and jury that he did not steal money from his room-mate. How heavily a man's record weighs upon him sometimes.

THE world does not afford a lovelier combination than pretty women and pretty flowers, and it is to be found in perfection in the Flower Show at the Exposition. There is enough sweetness and beauty concentrated there at present to make a combined cynic shout hallelujahs.

THE announcement that the Behring Sea dispute is to be settled by arbitration is gratifying, but it ought to have come sooner. It does seem that the harsh feeling aroused during the early stages of the negotiation might have been avoided by the exercise of a little tact by the American diplomats. A friendly difference of opinion is more easily composed than a quarrel accompanied by brag and bluster.

It cost ROSWELL P. FLOWER just $5,000 to the Governor of New York. Most of this went to defray the preliminary expenses of a canvas of the voters. The New York Corrupt Practices Act seems to be working well. So far as candidates have made return no one of them spent more than $7,000. There may be ways of getting around the law, but they have not yet been exposed.

to the chairmanship of a School Board committee, is not reassuring to the friends of reform in the School Board management. There is only one view to be taken of MACKLIN, and that is as a man holding his seat in the School Board illegally, who should be bounced at the earliest possible moment.

WAIT AND SEE.

School Director BROCKMAN is confident that he made no mistake in voting for BARTHOLDT, and that the new School Board President will soon show himself in full sympathy with the new members and worthy of their entire confidence; that he will not favor boodlers and crooked election work with whitewashing committees, nor rule that it takes a two-thirds vote to pronounce a seat vacant when filled by a man who is disqualified by statute.

The POST-DISPATCH will be as well pleased should the new President verify the good opinion entertained of him by the three new members who voted for him, as they will have reason to be.

The current opinion now is that much hard work and hard bargaining were required to unite such antagonists as MACKLIN and O'CONNELL, and to make three much-pledged anti-boodlers vote for CUDMORE's candidate.

Nevertheless, it may be true, as Mr. BARTHOLDT declares, that he is under no obligation to the ringsters who voted for him, and that at BROCKMAN, WAIT and CUDMORE may be nearer point with pride to his course. He owes his election to their support, and we sincerely hope that if he disappoints anybody it will be the other electors of his supporters.

THE explanation offered by Mr. PALMER—sometimes grandiloquently called General—of his flag letter, makes the matter worse for that tonguey patriot. If the "brainy Southerners" are satisfied with the results of the war and are patriotic upholders of the Government as the "General" says, and if the war feeling is confined to thoughtless boys and foolish women, as he also says, why do the Commanders-in-Chief rave and gnash their teeth when the feeling is displayed? Can they find no better uses for their wits than the composition of letters abusing boys and women? The idea that the soldier-soldiers were all killed in the war or have since died has been propagated by the utterances of some men who have been put forward as exponents of G. A. R. sentiments.

ALTHOUGH it is probable that the dictatorship of DA FONSECA will be overthrown in Brazil, it is hardly possible that the hope of re-establishing the Empire, said to be harbored by certain European monarchs, will be realized. The Brazilian revolution represented the culmination of an educational process toward free self-government under the liberal and constitutional rule of DOM PEDRO and it is not likely that the people there will consent to go backward. Such a step is far less probable in this hemisphere, where the atmosphere of freedom prevails, than in Europe, where the surroundings are inimical to free government. DA FONSECA may go, but Republican government will surely survive in Brazil.

THE cordial welcome and hospitable entertainment given the members of the Spanish Club of this city at all points where they have stopped on their Mexican tour disprove the reports that the Mexicans are coldly disposed toward citizens of the United States and do not want to establish social or business relations with them. The letters of the POST-DISPATCH staff correspondents show that the excursionists are thoroughly enjoying themselves, and they also give interesting information about Mexico and the Mexicans.

CHICAGO's withdrawal from the contest for the Republican National Convention on the ground that she has been sufficiently favored by receiving the Columbian exposition, may be evidence of a change of heart and an increase of generosity upon her part, but not necessarily so. It may merely be proof that she realizes the facts that she has more than she can attend to now in the World's Fair.

UNTIL the Ohio senatorial election is settled Secretary FOSTER will be unable to attend very effectively to his public duties, but after that he will of course ascertain why the Maverick Bank was kept open a year after it had been condemned, and also the exact nature of the pull enjoyed by the Keystone Bank. In this latter case Messrs. WANAMAKER and QUAY can probably give valuable evidence.

THE announcement that the Behring Sea dispute is to be settled by arbitration is gratifying, but it ought to have come sooner. It does seem that the harsh feeling aroused during the early stages of the negotiation might have been avoided by the exercise of a little tact by the American diplomats. A friendly difference of opinion is more easily composed than a quarrel accompanied by brag and bluster.

It cost ROSWELL P. FLOWER just $5,000 to the Governor of New York. Most of this went to defray the preliminary expenses of a canvas of the voters. The New York Corrupt Practices Act seems to be working well. So far as candidates have made return no one of them spent more than $7,000. There may be ways of getting around the law, but they have not yet been exposed.

CHILDREN IN PERIL.

Dangerous Early Morning Fire at the St. Louis Children's Hospital.

THE LITTLE ONES RESCUED FROM SMOKE AND THREATENING FLAMES.

Firemen, Nurses, Doctors and Neighbors Form the Rescue Party—Twenty Helpless Invalids Were in the Sick Ward—An Improved Saloon Hospital—The Call for Help.

A few minutes after 6 o'clock this morning Matron Sheble of the St. Louis Children's Hospital, located on the southeast corner of Jefferson avenue and Adams street, opened her bedroom door and stepped out into the hallway of the hospital, just in time to be greeted with a terrifying cry. One of the hospital children, who was breathing breathlessly up-wards towards the matron's room, gasped out as she saw the door open. "Oh, Mrs. Sheble, the hospital's on fire! The laundry is all ablaze!"

Hardly had the cry been heard than the matron, startled as she was, rushed up the broad stairway leading to the wards on the second floor, giving the alarm as she went. Forty-two children, most of whom were two, two, were bed-ridden, and four of the number had just undergone serious surgical operations. At Matron Sheble hurried upstairs, where these children were, she noticed smoke beginning to pour in black volumes through dangerous cracks already made in the flooring immediately above the laundry, which was located in the basement. The sight added to the matron's fright to the children's ward.

The sudden alarm caused a gathering of the hospital working staff in almost incredible short order. By the time Matron Sheble reached the stairs the fire was joined by Mrs. Packard, nurse in charge of the first floor, Mrs. Balley, day nurse on the second floor, Mrs. Packard, night nurse on the same floor, Mrs. Wheat, day nurse of the first floor, and Mrs. Gillman, night nurse of that floor, all of whom remain-but sob or scream. The kind-hearted proprietor of the saloon built up a roaring fire in his stove, windows and doors were kept closed with wedges, and set alight and waited while the flames of 10's and 7's fought the fire in the hospital basement. At one time it looked as though the entire building, but at last after hours of hard work the saloon was completely burned out, however, the loss amounting to $1,000. The walls and ceiling showed plain traces of the fire and the stock of children's clothing was destroyed by the flames, as the week's washings were still in progress. It was believed that the fire originated in a new "dryer" recently placed in the basement. The laundry was the only serious fire in the east wall of the laundry.

At the same time the firemen pronounced the fire completely extinguished the children were taken back to the hospital and a hurried breakfast prepared. The children were driven out of the building but the walls and ceiling showed plain traces of the fire and the stock of children's clothing was destroyed by the flames, as the week's washings were still in progress. It was believed that the fire originated in a new "dryer" recently placed in the basement. The laundry was the only serious fire in the east wall of the laundry.

At the same time the firemen pronounced the fire completely extinguished the children were taken back to the hospital and a hurried breakfast prepared. The children were driven out of the building but the walls and ceiling showed plain traces of the fire and the stock of children's clothing was destroyed by the flames, as the week's washings were still in progress. It was believed that the fire originated in a new "dryer" recently placed in the basement. The laundry was the only serious fire in the east wall of the laundry.

At the same time the firemen pronounced the fire completely extinguished the children were taken back to the hospital and a hurried breakfast prepared. The children were driven out of the building but the walls and ceiling showed plain traces of the fire and the stock of children's clothing was destroyed by the flames, as the week's washings were still in progress. It was believed that the fire originated in a new "dryer" recently placed in the basement. The laundry was the only serious fire in the east wall of the laundry.

At the same time the firemen pronounced the fire completely extinguished the children were taken back to the hospital and a hurried breakfast prepared. The children were driven out of the building but the walls and ceiling showed plain traces of the fire and the stock of children's clothing was destroyed by the flames, as the week's washings were still in progress. It was believed that the fire originated in a new "dryer" recently placed in the basement. The laundry was the only serious fire in the east wall of the laundry.

At the same time the firemen pronounced the fire completely extinguished the children were taken back to the hospital and a hurried breakfast prepared. The children were driven out of the building but the walls and ceiling showed plain traces of the fire and the stock of children's clothing was destroyed by the flames, as the week's washings were still in progress. It was believed that the fire originated in a new "dryer" recently placed in the basement. The laundry was the only serious fire in the east wall of the laundry.

At the same time the firemen pronounced the fire completely extinguished the children were taken back to the hospital and a hurried breakfast prepared. The children were driven out of the building but the walls and ceiling showed plain traces of the fire and the stock of children's clothing was destroyed by the flames, as the week's washings were still in progress. It was believed that the fire originated in a new "dryer" recently placed in the basement. The laundry was the only serious fire in the east wall of the laundry.

At the same time the firemen pronounced the fire completely extinguished the children were taken back to the hospital and a hurried breakfast prepared. The children were driven out of the building but the walls and ceiling showed plain traces of the fire and the stock of children's clothing was destroyed by the flames, as the week's washings were still in progress. It was believed that the fire originated in a new "dryer" recently placed in the basement. The laundry was the only serious fire in the east wall of the laundry.

At the same time the firemen pronounced the fire completely extinguished the children were taken back to the hospital and a hurried breakfast prepared. The children were driven out of the building but the walls and ceiling showed plain traces of the fire and the stock of children's clothing was destroyed by the flames, as the week's washings were still in progress. It was believed that the fire originated in a new "dryer" recently placed in the basement. The laundry was the only serious fire in the east wall of the laundry.

At the same time the firemen pronounced the fire completely extinguished the children were taken back to the hospital and a hurried breakfast prepared. The children were driven out of the building but the walls and ceiling showed plain traces of the fire and the stock of children's clothing was destroyed by the flames, as the week's washings were still in progress. It was believed that the fire originated in a new "dryer" recently placed in the basement. The laundry was the only serious fire in the east wall of the laundry.

At the same time the firemen pronounced the fire completely extinguished the children were taken back to the hospital and a hurried breakfast prepared. The children were driven out of the building but the walls and ceiling showed plain traces of the fire and the stock of children's clothing was destroyed by the flames, as the week's washings were still in progress. It was believed that the fire originated in a new "dryer" recently placed in the basement. The laundry was the only serious fire in the east wall of the laundry.

At the same time the firemen pronounced the fire completely extinguished the children were taken back to the hospital and a hurried breakfast prepared. The children were driven out of the building but the walls and ceiling showed plain traces of the fire and the stock of children's clothing was destroyed by the flames, as the week's washings were still in progress. It was believed that the fire originated in a new "dryer" recently placed in the basement. The laundry was the only serious fire in the east wall of the laundry.

At the same time the firemen pronounced the fire completely extinguished the children were taken back to the hospital and a hurried breakfast prepared. The children were driven out of the building but the walls and ceiling showed plain traces of the fire and the stock of children's clothing was destroyed by the flames, as the week's washings were still in progress. It was believed that the fire originated in a new "dryer" recently placed in the basement. The laundry was the only serious fire in the east wall of the laundry.

At the same time the firemen pronounced the fire completely extinguished the children were taken back to the hospital and a hurried breakfast prepared. The children were driven out of the building but the walls and ceiling showed plain traces of the fire and the stock of children's clothing was destroyed by the flames, as the week's washings were still in progress. It was believed that the fire originated in a new "dryer" recently placed in the basement. The laundry was the only serious fire in the east wall of the laundry.

At the same time the firemen pronounced the fire completely extinguished the children were taken back to the hospital and a hurried breakfast prepared. The children were driven out of the building but the walls and ceiling showed plain traces of the fire and the stock of children's clothing was destroyed by the flames, as the week's washings were still in progress. It was believed that the fire originated in a new "dryer" recently placed in the basement. The laundry was the only serious fire in the east wall of the laundry.

At the same time the firemen pronounced the fire completely extinguished the children were taken back to the hospital and a hurried breakfast prepared. The children were driven out of the building but the walls and ceiling showed plain traces of the fire and the stock of children's clothing was destroyed by the flames, as the week's washings were still in progress. It was believed that the fire originated in a new "dryer" recently placed in the basement. The laundry was the only serious fire in the east wall of the laundry.

At the same time the firemen pronounced the fire completely extinguished the children were taken back to the hospital and a hurried breakfast prepared. The children were driven out of the building but the walls and ceiling showed plain traces of the fire and the stock of children's clothing was destroyed by the flames, as the week's washings were still in progress. It was believed that the fire originated in a new "dryer" recently placed in the basement. The laundry was the only serious fire in the east wall of the laundry.

At the same time the firemen pronounced the fire completely extinguished the children were taken back to the hospital and a hurried breakfast prepared. The children were driven out of the building but the walls and ceiling showed plain traces of the fire and the stock of children's clothing was destroyed by the flames, as the week's washings were still in progress. It was believed that the fire originated in a new "dryer" recently placed in the basement. The laundry was the only serious fire in the east wall of the laundry.

At the same time the firemen pronounced the fire completely extinguished the children were taken back to the hospital and a hurried breakfast prepared. The children were driven out of the building but the walls and ceiling showed plain traces of the fire and the stock of children's clothing was destroyed by the flames, as the week's washings were still in progress. It was believed that the fire originated in a new "dryer" recently placed in the basement. The laundry was the only serious fire in the east wall of the laundry.

At the same time the firemen pronounced the fire completely extinguished the children were taken back to the hospital and a hurried breakfast prepared. The children were driven out of the building but the walls and ceiling showed plain traces of the fire and the stock of children's clothing was destroyed by the flames, as the week's washings were still in progress. It was believed that the fire originated in a new "dryer" recently placed in the basement. The laundry was the only serious fire in the east wall of the laundry.

At the same time the firemen pronounced the fire completely extinguished the children were taken back to the hospital and a hurried breakfast prepared. The children were driven out of the building but the walls and ceiling showed plain traces of the fire and the stock of children's clothing was destroyed by the flames, as the week's washings were still in progress. It was believed that the fire originated in a new "dryer" recently placed in the basement. The laundry was the only serious fire in the east wall of the laundry.

At the same time the firemen pronounced the fire completely extinguished the children were taken back to the hospital and a hurried breakfast prepared. The children were driven out of the building but the walls and ceiling showed plain traces of the fire and the stock of children's clothing was destroyed by the flames, as the week's washings were still in progress. It was believed that the fire originated in a new "dryer" recently placed in the basement. The laundry was the only serious fire in the east wall of the laundry.

At the same time the firemen pronounced the fire completely extinguished the children were taken back to the hospital and a hurried breakfast prepared. The children

SIMPLE SERVICES.

The Burial of a Nun of the Carmelite Order.

SISTER MARY MARGARET LAID TO REST WITH SOLEMN RITES.

Archbishop Ireland's Lecture During the Kenrick Jubilee Celebration—The Dedication of the First Christian Church of East St. Louis Next Sunday—A Church Reunion—Religious Notes.

The full solemnity of the Roman Catholic burial service was illustrated strikingly yesterday at the funeral obsequies of Sister Mary Margaret, a member of the Order of the Carmelites. The services took place in the chapel of the Monastery on Victor street and Second Carondelet avenue. The austerity of the order is never relaxed, even at the burial of a deceased member, but this extreme simplicity added to a great measure to the solemnity of the service. The Carmelites are the most secluded of the contemplative orders of the church. Its members never catch a glimpse of the outside world, and even their faces are covered with a black pall which hides their features from the sight of their fellow-creatures. The monastery chapel is divided into two parts, the exterior chapel, in which the services and pews for the faithful, and an interior or community chapel for the members of the sisterhood. The two are separated by an iron grating, behind which is suspended a heavy black pall. In this chapel at stated hours of the day and night the sisters gather, and kneeling on the bare floor, recite the office and psalms. The body of the deceased nun was laid out in the same chapel, dressed in plain pine-crem, shrouded in the brown habit of the order and bearing in her hand a scroll on which was written the names of Jesus, Mary and Joseph and the prayer of St. Teresa, the foundress of the order. The face was uncovered and the interior of the coffin completely filled with wreaths of white flowers. In the outer chapel a few words of gloom of the death or the community who were gathered round it were visible. Rev. Edward Fowler, a brother of the deceased sister, said the high mass of repose. During the service a choir of female voices chanted the "De Profundis" and the Gregorian mass for the dead. After mass Rev. Edward Shea said a few words of comfort to the bereaved nun, and then the heavy grating was opened, and Father Walsh, entering the chapel, said a few words of comfort with holy water and pronounced the absolution for the remains. Just before the coffin was laid in the vault, Rev. Fowler stepped forward and placed a white napkin over the face of the deceased, so that the last words of the deceased were heard. The remains were then taken charge of by four young men, who officiated as pall-bearers and carried the coffin to the hearse. The burial took place in Calvary Cemetery. It was the original custom of the order to bury their dead in the church, but the introduction of sanitary restrictions in this country caused this practice to be abandoned.

Sister Mary Margaret was well-known in this city as Miss Margaret Fowler. For a number of years she was a teacher in the schools of the Carmelite order. Some time ago she left the world to lead a life of austerity and self-denial in the Carmelite order. She was a model religious, and for five years had held the important position of mistress of novices. She died last Saturday, and her obituary spoke all the modern languages fluently, was noted for several polished translations from the French and Spanish devotionals. She died on Nov. 10, at 9th year of her age, of valvular disease of the heart. The condition of which she was a victim, she felt her end approaching, and will recite daily for the coming week the office of the dead for the eternal repose of her soul.

Will Not Participate.

The parishioners of St. Mary's Church have felt so strongly in favor of the archbishop to allow them to erect their new church on Morrison avenue that all preparations for the jubilee celebration have lapsed and the parish will be the only one in the city which will not participate. The congregation had received permission to erect a new church and to hold a jubilee celebration in their church, but the archbishop, in his letter of invitation, infringes on both St. Vincent's and the Holy Name Parishes. At the request of the Holy Name Parishes, the archbishop, when he realized the situation, withdrew his consent from St. Mary's congregation, and the latter, in order to protect themselves against any pecuniary loss, purchased from them the property at the price they paid for it. The Holy Name Parishes, however, up to this time had made extensive preparations for the jubilee celebration, but when the archbishop withdrew his consent, finally, there was no end to their enthusiasm. The parents of the children of the parish were very anxious about the welfare of the children's church, so that the parish will not be represented in any way during the celebration.

Archbishop Ireland's Lecture.

One of the most interesting events that will occur during the Kenrick Jubilee celebration will be the lecture on "The Church and Workmen" by the Most Rev. John Ireland, Archbishop of St. Paul. The review encyclical of Leo XIII, on the labor question and Henry George's reply thereto will receive the attention of a number of Archbishops Ireland is one of the most noted characters in the country, and as this is his first public appearance in St. Louis, he will be greatly crowded to it by numerous friends and admirers of the distinguished ecclesiastic. The lecture will be given in the Leopold Hall in the Grand Army of the Republic building, and it is expected that the local posts will honor the speaker with a large audience. The lecture will be in the benefit of the academy of the Visitation at Cabanne. Cardinal Gibbons has written to the sister experimenters to assure them of his hearty support. He will occupy a seat upon the stage at the close of the lecture and will hold an informal reception.

Children's Home Society.

A preliminary meeting was held at Pilgrim Congregational Church last evening for the purpose of organizing a local branch of the National Association of Children's Home Societies. Dr. Haggerty and Mr. S. H. Fye was elected secretary, Rev. C. F. Williams, the State agent, the Rev. Dr. John H. Moore, trustee, and the Rev. Dr. H. Bolman, Treasurer. A local committee will be chosen shortly and a local charter applied for.

Holy Rosary Parish Reunion.

There will be a grand reunion of the friends and parishioners of the Holy Rosary on Thanksgiving Eve, Nov. 25. An entertainment will be given by some of the best local talent in the city to take place in the new church building which is as yet undedicated. The services will be conducted by the pastor in charge of all arrangements for the entertainment of guests.

Dedication of an East St. Louis Church. The dedicatory services of the First Christian Church, East St. Louis, will take place next Sunday afternoon, beginning at 3 o'clock. The following is the order of exercises: Invocation, Rev. J. J. McDonnell, pastor of the First Christian Church; Reading, Rev. J. L. Parsons, pastor of the First Church; Historical Sketch, Rev. J. L. Parsons, pastor; Solo, "Ashamed of Jesus," Mrs. Fannie Metcalfe; Dedicatory

SPECIAL BARGAINS

UNDERWEAR

2 cases Men's Heavy Natural Wool Undershirts or Drawers to match, all silk bound, in all sizes, go Saturday at.....	$1.00 Each
3 cases Men's Heavy Red All-Wool Medicated Undershirts or Drawers to match, in all sizes, regular finished, a special Bargain at.....	$1.00 Each
4 cases Men's Fine Cashmere Undershirts or Drawers to match, fawn color, all silk stitched, in all sizes, a great Bargain at.....	$1.50 Each
1 case Men's Fine Medium Weight White Merino Undershirts or Drawers to match, in all sizes, Saturday bargain at.....	50 Cents Each

FAMOUS—Open Till 10 P. M. on Saturday. Broadway and Morgan.

BEGINNING SUNDAY NOVEMBER 15TH

GOING WEST =
A MAN Should Take
The Through
PULLMAN BUFFET SLEEPERS TO DENVER WITHOUT CHANGE
VIA THE NEW
WABASH-ROCK ISLAND
SHORT LINE.
Ticket Offices S. E. Cor. Broadway & Olive Sts. and Union Depot.

WE WANT YOU TO SEE OUR SOLITAIRE DIAMOND RINGS.

Positively the grandest values ever offered in FINE DIAMONDS.
The qualities of the stones are first-class, and the mountings superb. Call.
Mermod & Jaccard's,
Broadway and Locust.

KILLED BY A RIVAL.

Henry Woolfmeier's Body Brought Back Home To-Day.

SHOT BY JIM DAVIS, WHO ENVIED HIM HIS WIFE.

Story of a Romance and Tragedy at Van Duzen, Ark., in which a St. Louisan Figured—A Barrel of Bones Found in a Morgan Street Tenement House—Police News.

Benj. St. James Fry of the Central Methodist Advertiser has gone to Cleveland, Ohio, to attend the annual meeting of the muscular conception.

The Young Men's Society of St. Bridget's Parish held a special meeting Wednesday evening to consider arrangements for participating in the jubilee.

The new church of the Holy Rosary on New and Margaretta avenues will be dedicated on the 25th of November in the octave of the Immaculate Conception.

Rev. Benj. St. James Fry of the Central Methodist Advertiser has gone to Cleveland, Ohio, to attend the annual meeting of the muscular conception.

At 8 o'clock next Sunday afternoon Vicar General Muehlstein will bless the new church of the Holy Rosary on New and Margaretta avenues. The following Sunday, the 2d, will be a fair arranged for the benefit of the new church, at Ezel and Hamilton avenues, will be given. Nov. 18, at Offenstein's Hall, East St. Louis, will be given two weeks back of the new St. Louis and Suburban electric road, formerly the Wash street bridge.

A H. D. Short will deliver a lecture on "Sacred Music" next Sunday evening at 7:45 o'clock in St. Peter's Church, Grand avenue.

Rev. Dr. Haggerty and Mr. S. H. Fye was elected secretary, Rev. C. F. Williams, the State agent, the Rev. Dr. John H. Moore, trustee, and the Rev. Dr. H. Bolman, Treasurer. A local committee will be chosen shortly and a local charter applied for.

Children's Home Society.

A preliminary meeting was held at Pilgrim Congregational Church last evening for the purpose of organizing a local branch of the National Association of Children's Home Societies. Dr. Haggerty and Mr. S. H. Fye was elected secretary, Rev. C. F. Williams, the State agent, the Rev. Dr. John H. Moore, trustee, and the Rev. Dr. H. Bolman, Treasurer. A local committee will be chosen shortly and a local charter applied for.

Holy Rosary Parish Reunion.

There will be a grand reunion of the friends and parishioners of the Holy Rosary on Thanksgiving Eve, Nov. 25. An entertainment will be given by some of the best local talent in the city to take place in the new church building which is as yet undedicated. The services will be conducted by the pastor in charge of all arrangements for the entertainment of guests.

Dedication of an East St. Louis Church.

The dedicatory services of the First Christian Church, East St. Louis, will take place next Sunday afternoon, beginning at 3 o'clock.

The following is the order of exercises:

Invocation, Rev. J. J. McDonnell, pastor of the First Christian Church.

Historical Sketch, Rev. J. L. Parsons, pastor of the First Church.

Reading, Rev. J. L. Parsons, pastor of the First Church.

Scriptural Reading, Rev. J. L. Parsons, pastor of the First Church.

Prayer, Rev. J. L. Parsons, pastor of the First Church.

Music, Dr. B. M. Jordan and Dr. Selvers.

Occupied the house before him and he understood the "specimens" be-

DO IT NOW! BUY! BUY!

Better opportunity will never come! Better values will never be given! We mark to-day and to-morrow with the mightiest of the many mighty, magnificent offers that we are famous for making!

SEVEN GIGANTIC SPECIAL SALES!

Give to you seven of the grandest buying opportunities you were ever given!

2000 Magnificent $25, 22 and 20 Suits Go at $15!

Elegant, stylish new browns, blacks, grays, etc. 'Twill cost you double and over to match them at any tailor's!

2000 Superb $22, 20 and 18 Overcoats Go at $13.50!

Fine Meltons, Kerseys, Chinchillas, etc. Equal to all and superior to some sold at $22, $20 and $18 elsewhere!

600 Pairs Finest $7, $8, $9 and $10 Trousers Go at $5.50

Handsome, dressy materials! Latest, stylish patterns! You'll pay a tailor $10 to $15 for the same!

2000 Pairs Regular $3.50 Trousers Go at $2.39!

Good, strong, warm goods! Sold for $3.50 everywhere! You'll look for their equals in vain!

Every $3, $3.50, $4 and $4.50

Stiff Hat We Have Goes at $1.98!

All the newest shapes! All colors! All styles! All go! It's a glorious chance to get the best!

1000 Pairs Ladies' and Men's Fine Shoes. Worth $4.50. Go at $3!

Graceful, stylish, finely fitting Footwear! It's like finding a $1.50 to get them for $1!

Tremendous Values in Men's Underwear at 50 cents, 75 cents and $1.00!

Store Open Till 10 O'Clock Saturday Nights.

J. L. HUDSON, 406-408 N. Broadway.

AMUSEMENTS.

OLYMPIC.

To-Night and Saturday Matinee, last 2 performances of

W. H. CRANE AS THE SENATOR.

EXTRA—Nov. 16, England's Distinguished Actor, MR. E. S.

WILLARD.

Supported by A. M. Palmer's Company in H. A. Jones' Great Play, the MIDDLEMAN.

GRAND OPERA-HOUSE.

Every Evening and Saturday Matinee.

MR. NAT. C. GOODWIN.

In Brandon Matthews and George H. Jones' new and original Comedy, in three acts,

A GOLD MINE.

Next Week—"Hermann, the Prestidigitator."

HAVLIN'S TO-NIGHT.

Matinee Saturday.

GUS HILL'S

World of Novelties and Vaudeville Co.

Next week—MCARTHY'S MISCHAPS.

STANDARD THEATER.

To-night—The Standard. Engagement Extraordinary.

Hyde's Big Vaudeville Co.

With Helene Morse and Jack McAlister.

Next week—The Henry Burlesque Co.

Telephone 3,906.

THE HAGAN

Tenth and Pine Sts.

To-Night, Every Night and Saturday Matinee.

The J. C. DUFF

Comic Opera

By the Authors of

PAOLA.

Sunday—Chicago and Milwaukee German Companies.

COMMERCIAL.
Regular Cash Market Price—11:30 Call.

To-day. Yesterday. Year ago.

WHEAT.
2 red.	80¢	80¢	80¢
3 red.	80¢	80¢	80¢
4 red.	80¢	80¢	80¢

CORN.
10. 2 white.	40¢	40¢	40¢
10. 3 white.	40¢	40¢	40¢
10. 4 white.	40¢	40¢	40¢

OATS.
No. 2.	30¢	31½	46 b
No. 3 white.	28½	29	47

*East side.

Future Prices.

Closing	Highest	Lowest	Today	Closing	Today
Nov. 94 n	96	94	94	93 a	93 a
Dec. 102 b	102	102	102	102	102
Jan. 104 b	104	104	104	104	104
May. 106 b	106	106	106	106	106

WHEAT.

Nov.	41 b	41	40	40
Year	39	39	38	38
Jan.	39	39	38	38
May.	40 b	40	40	40

CORN.

Nov.	30 b	30	30 b
May.	32	32	31½ a

CHICAGO—Reported by Gaylord, Blessing & Co.

207 Olive street.

WHEAT.

Dec. 1	90¢	90	90	90	90
Year	89	89	89	89	89
Jan.	89	89	89	89	89
May.	90 b	90	90	90	90

CORN.

Nov.	41	41	40	40
Year	39	39	38	38
Jan.	39	39	38	38
May.	40 b	40	40	40

OATS.

Nov.	30 b	30	30 b
May.	32	32	31½ a

CHICAGO—Reported by Gaylord, Blessing & Co.

207 Olive street.

WHEAT.

Dec. 1	90	90	90	90	90
Year	89	89	89	89	89
Jan.	89	89	89	89	89
May.	90 b	90	90	90	90

CORN.

Nov.	41	41	40	40
Year	39	39	38	38
Jan.	39	39	38	38
May.	40 b	40	40	40

OATS.

Nov.	30 b	30	30 b
May.	32	32	31½ a

CHICAGO—Reported by Gaylord, Blessing & Co.

207 Olive street.

WHEAT.

Dec. 1	90	90	90	90	90
Year	89	89	89	89	89
Jan.	89	89	89	89	89
May.	90 b	90	90	90	90

CORN.

Nov.	41	41	40	40
Year	39	39	38	38
Jan.	39	39	38	38
May.	40 b	40	40	40

OATS.

Nov.	30 b	30	30 b
May.	32	32	31½ a

CHICAGO—Reported by Gaylord, Blessing & Co.

207 Olive street.

WHEAT.

Dec. 1	90	90	90	90	90
Year	89	89	89	89	89
Jan.	89	89	89	89	89
May.	90 b	90	90	90	90

CORN.

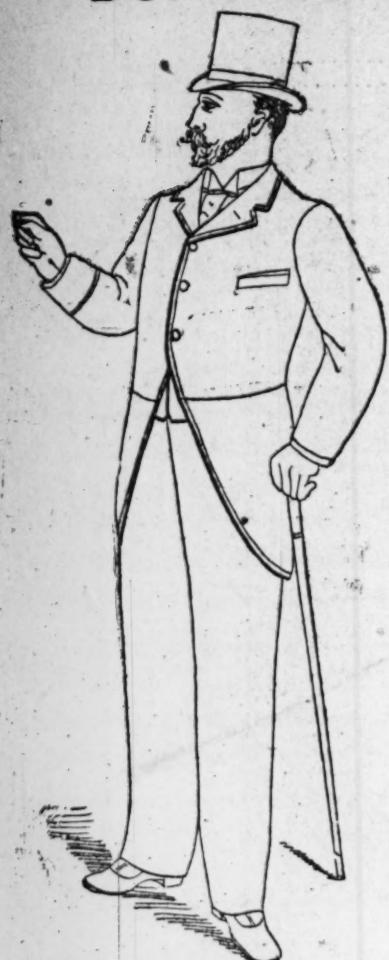

Nov.	41	41	40	40
Year	39	39	38	38
Jan.	39	39	38	38
May.	40 b	40	40	40

OATS.

Nov.	30 b	30	30 b

<tbl_r cells="4" ix="1" maxcspan="1" maxr

DON'T CONFFOUND OUR
Eiffel Tower
SUITS AND OVERCOATS

With ordinary ready-made clothing. There is as much difference between them and what are usually sold as ready-made garments as there is between a gentleman by nature and a professional tramp.

Superiority in Fit, Fabric, Workmanship and Style

Is what you may expect when purchasing Eiffel Tower Clothing of us.

BROADWAY AND MORGAN.

Open till 10 p. m. Saturdays. Typewriters free with purchases of $10.00 or over. Out-of-town patrons, write for 100-page Illustrated Catalogue.

Famous

MEN'S SHOES

HONEST SHOES
FOR HONEST MONEY.

Fine Art Shoemaking, Fifty Styles, $6, $6.50, $7, $7.50, $8, $8.50, $9. Shoes for the Masses, $5, $4.50, $4, $3.50, $3, $2.50, $2. Shoes for Workers of Iron and Stone, $2, $1.75, $1.50, $1.25, $1.

FAMOUS Shoe Department,
Broadway and Morgan St.

New York Oysters

25 Cents Per Doz.
DELICATESSEN LUNCH ROOMS.

COMMERCIAL HOTEL
and Restaurant. 416 Chestnut St.

CITY NEWS.

Dr. E. C. Chase,
Corner of 9th and Olive streets. Set of teeth, $5.

PRIVATE matters skillfully treated and medicines furnished. Dr. Dinsbeir, 314 Pine St.

THE CHRYSANTHEMUM SHOW.

The Exposition of Beautiful Flowers Closes To-Night.

It was under a strong protest that more than two thousand yesterday observed that one of the Ten Commandments, which says: "Thou shalt not steal," it was only flowers they did not steal, but the temptation to take just one out of so many was very strong. Not one of the 2,000 that visited the Exposition show went away yesterday dissatisfied and many of them came up bright and early this morning to see if anything had escaped their observers' notice.

An inquiry was made at Manager Galen's office this morning for some of the Exposition management, and it was learned that they were all in the flower show and could be found there any time during the day.

The ladies of the flower show, some hundred or more present by 10:30 this morning, expressed a regret that the show was not to be continued.

"Dear place to meet your friends, and talk so much more pleasant than the down town stores," said Mrs. Mary Morgan, but, however, the ladies mixed their examination of flowers with an interchange of the latest information.

To-night ends the show and this afternoon the flower show will be closed.

The premiums to be given out to day are silver cups, offered by Ellison & Kuehn, wholesale florists, for the best ten varieties of cut roses, six of a kind, $5.

Some of the best ten varieties of cut carnations, twenty-five of a kind, $5.

Best cut roses, Duchess of Albany; best 10-cut blooms of rose, Perle des Jardins; best 10-cut blooms of rose, Niphe; best 10-cut blooms of rose, Rose de la Fennet; best 10-cut blooms of rose, The Bride; best 5-cut blooms of rose, American Beauty; best 10-cut blooms of rose, Queen of the South; best 10-cut blooms of rose, Papa Gontier; best 10-cut blooms of rose, Madam Hoste; best 10-cut blooms of rose, Queen of the South; best 10-cut blooms of rose, Madam de Watteville; best 10-cut blooms of rose, Soubiran de Woenton; best 10-cut blooms of rose, La France.

Best flat oval basket, not over eighteen inches in diameter. Best table decoration for the flower show, $10. The arrangement will complete the work of the Arranging Committee and will be put on this afternoon.

During the afternoon the organ recitals will be given as usual, and at 10:30 the whole show will be over.

Mrs. Whaner's Soothing Syrup for Children. Feeding is the only treatment. 25c a bottle.

The North End Building & Loan Association held its annual meeting last night at the Hall, Twentieth and Bissell streets, and elected: Dr. J. E. Bauer, President; Dr. J. E. Bauer, Vice-President; John Ober, Secretary; Theo. H. Wurm, Treasurer. The new directors are: Geo. Hiltz, Dr. J. E. Bauer, Dr. J. E. Bauer, Dr. J. E. Bauer, Walter Smith, A. Menow, Dr. J. E. Bauer, Fred Boering and A. E. Miller.

DIRECTLY OPPOSITE POST-OFFICE.

A COLD WAVE SIGNAL!

The Weather Bureau Predicts That Winter Has Arrived and Will Continue in Dead Earnest.

Now is the time to avail yourself of the elegant line of Winter Overcoats, in all styles and colors, offered by the only Genuine Misfit Clothing Parlors, 808 OLIVE ST. Our prices are below those of Ready Made establishments and we guarantee a fit making all needed alterations free of charge, besides giving our customers the advantage of the superior quality of material used in the Tailor Made Garments.

WINTER OVERCOATS.

Tailor's Price, $25. Price 808 Olive St., $12.

Tailor's Price, $35. Price 808 Olive St., $15.

Tailor's Price, $45. Price 808 Olive St., $20.

Tailor's Price, $60. Price 808 Olive St., $25.

SUITS.

Tailor's Price, $15. Price 808 Olive St., $9.

Tailor's Price, $20. Price 808 Olive St., $12.

Tailor's Price, $30. Price 808 Olive St., $15.

Tailor's Price, $40. Price 808 Olive St., $20.

Tailor's Price, $60. Price 808 Olive St., $30.

PANTALOONS.

Tailor's Price, $7. Price 808 Olive St., $3.50.

Tailor's Price, $8. Price 808 Olive St., $4.

Tailor's Price, $10. Price 808 Olive St., $5.

Tailor's Price, $12. Price 808 Olive St., $6.

Tailor's Price, $14. Price 808 Olive St., $7.

Tailor's Price, $18. Price 808 Olive St., $9.

ONLY GENUINE

Open
Evenings
Till 9,
Saturdays
Until 11.

Mall
Orders
Promptly Attended
To.

DIRECTLY OPPOSITE POST-OFFICE.

WE OFFER to the TRADE and PUBLIC
the World Renowned

FRENCH CLARETS & SAUTERNES.

BOTTLED BY

BARTON & GUESTIER, } Bordeaux.
CRUSE & FILS FRERES, }

BURGUNDY WINES

BOTTLED BY

E. CHAUVENET, at Neuts (Cote d'Or),
ALBERT PASSIER, Santenay.

OUR OWN DIRECT
IMPORTATIONS.

STEINWENDER & SELLNER

IMPORTERS.

117 SOUTH BROADWAY.

Buy Your SHOES To-Morrow!

All our $5, $6, $7 and $8 Hand-sewed Shoes for Men and Ladies Going for $4.95

This includes such lines as BURT & MEARS Men's hand-sewed shoe, regular price $7.50, to-morrow only $4.95.

The Freeman Shoe Co. patent leather shoe, which are sold every day in the week for $7 and $8, you get them to-morrow for $4.95.

Hathaway, Soule & Harrington's hand welt $7 shoe, your choice of 5 different toes for $4.95.

Our genuine cork sole hand welt $7 shoe going to-morrow for $4.95.

Our Ladies' Laird, Shober & Mitchell hand sewed and hand welt $6 and $7 shoe, to-morrow only $4.95. TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THIS SALE.

J. S. WOLFF,
Bete Pine and Chestnut.

Glasses accurately adjusted by educated and practical opticians who devote themselves strictly to this department.

Gold Spectacles and Eye Glasses, $5.00 and up, Steel, $1.00 and up, Fine

MERMOD & JACCARD'S, OPERA GLASSES, Broadway and Locust.

who wore the gray all the better for this hit-
the touch of human nature."

GOV. RUSSELL NAMED.
BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 13.—The Globe to-day prints an elaborate and argumentative editorial advocating the nomination of Gov. Russell for President by the Democrats.

OPPOSED TO POLITICS.
LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 13.—The Kentucky
Farmers' Alliance, in session at Elizabethtown, re-elected T. W. Gardner, President; John W. Johnson, Vice-President; and policians who do not believe in politics in account of the increased travel from this point to Florida and Southern coast points.

Increased Its Sleeping Cars.
The Louisville & Nashville has increased the capacity of its through sleeping cars in the line between Louisville and St. Louis on account of the increased travel from this point
to Florida and Southern coast points.

GOOTHE LODGE, No. 162, D. O. H., will celebrate its silver anniversary next Sunday night, at North
St. Louis Turner Hall, Twentieth and Salisbury
streets.

The People's Party Meeting.
The recent election has not dampened the ardor of the People's party supporters, as preparations are now being made for an active campaign in the interest of their party in this city. The first gun will be fired

to-night at Eck's Hall, Broadway and Montgomery streets. Heineman, known as the
"Arkansas Chieftain," and Hess of Illinois,
are booked to speak.

GOOTHE LODGE, No. 162, D. O. H., will celebrate
its silver anniversary next Sunday night, at North
St. Louis Turner Hall, Twentieth and Salisbury
streets.

The People's Party Meeting.
The recent election has not dampened the

ardor of the People's party supporters, as preparations are now being made for an
active campaign in the interest of their party in this city. The first gun will be fired
to-night at Eck's Hall, Broadway and Montgomery streets. Heineman, known as the
"Arkansas Chieftain," and Hess of Illinois,
are booked to speak.

GOOTHE LODGE, No. 162, D. O. H., will celebrate
its silver anniversary next Sunday night, at North
St. Louis Turner Hall, Twentieth and Salisbury
streets.

The People's Party Meeting.
The recent election has not dampened the

ardor of the People's party supporters, as preparations are now being made for an
active campaign in the interest of their party in this city. The first gun will be fired
to-night at Eck's Hall, Broadway and Montgomery streets. Heineman, known as the
"Arkansas Chieftain," and Hess of Illinois,
are booked to speak.

GOOTHE LODGE, No. 162, D. O. H., will celebrate
its silver anniversary next Sunday night, at North
St. Louis Turner Hall, Twentieth and Salisbury
streets.

The People's Party Meeting.
The recent election has not dampened the

ardor of the People's party supporters, as preparations are now being made for an
active campaign in the interest of their party in this city. The first gun will be fired
to-night at Eck's Hall, Broadway and Montgomery streets. Heineman, known as the
"Arkansas Chieftain," and Hess of Illinois,
are booked to speak.

GOOTHE LODGE, No. 162, D. O. H., will celebrate
its silver anniversary next Sunday night, at North
St. Louis Turner Hall, Twentieth and Salisbury
streets.

The People's Party Meeting.
The recent election has not dampened the

ardor of the People's party supporters, as preparations are now being made for an
active campaign in the interest of their party in this city. The first gun will be fired
to-night at Eck's Hall, Broadway and Montgomery streets. Heineman, known as the
"Arkansas Chieftain," and Hess of Illinois,
are booked to speak.

GOOTHE LODGE, No. 162, D. O. H., will celebrate
its silver anniversary next Sunday night, at North
St. Louis Turner Hall, Twentieth and Salisbury
streets.

The People's Party Meeting.
The recent election has not dampened the

ardor of the People's party supporters, as preparations are now being made for an
active campaign in the interest of their party in this city. The first gun will be fired
to-night at Eck's Hall, Broadway and Montgomery streets. Heineman, known as the
"Arkansas Chieftain," and Hess of Illinois,
are booked to speak.

GOOTHE LODGE, No. 162, D. O. H., will celebrate
its silver anniversary next Sunday night, at North
St. Louis Turner Hall, Twentieth and Salisbury
streets.

The People's Party Meeting.
The recent election has not dampened the

ardor of the People's party supporters, as preparations are now being made for an
active campaign in the interest of their party in this city. The first gun will be fired
to-night at Eck's Hall, Broadway and Montgomery streets. Heineman, known as the
"Arkansas Chieftain," and Hess of Illinois,
are booked to speak.

GOOTHE LODGE, No. 162, D. O. H., will celebrate
its silver anniversary next Sunday night, at North
St. Louis Turner Hall, Twentieth and Salisbury
streets.

The People's Party Meeting.
The recent election has not dampened the

ardor of the People's party supporters, as preparations are now being made for an
active campaign in the interest of their party in this city. The first gun will be fired
to-night at Eck's Hall, Broadway and Montgomery streets. Heineman, known as the
"Arkansas Chieftain," and Hess of Illinois,
are booked to speak.

GOOTHE LODGE, No. 162, D. O. H., will celebrate
its silver anniversary next Sunday night, at North
St. Louis Turner Hall, Twentieth and Salisbury
streets.

The People's Party Meeting.
The recent election has not dampened the

ardor of the People's party supporters, as preparations are now being made for an
active campaign in the interest of their party in this city. The first gun will be fired
to-night at Eck's Hall, Broadway and Montgomery streets. Heineman, known as the
"Arkansas Chieftain," and Hess of Illinois,
are booked to speak.

GOOTHE LODGE, No. 162, D. O. H., will celebrate
its silver anniversary next Sunday night, at North
St. Louis Turner Hall, Twentieth and Salisbury
streets.

The People's Party Meeting.
The recent election has not dampened the

